ATTORNEYS, RATES, HOURS AND REASONABLENESS OF FEES

19. PSZJ's attorneys have extensive experience representing creditors' committees, debtors, creditors, trustees, and others in a wide variety of bankruptcy cases. Notably, attorneys at PSZJ have unique experience representing more committees of survivors of childhood sexual abuse in chapter 11 cases involving entities affiliated with the Roman Catholic Church than does any other law firm in the country, including creditors' committees in the following cases: Diocese of Spokane (Washington); Diocese of Davenport (Iowa); Diocese of San Diego (California – first chapter 11 case); Diocese of Fairbanks (Alaska); Diocese of Wilmington (Delaware); Society of Jesus, Oregon Province (a five state Province); Archdiocese of Milwaukee (Wisconsin); The Christian Brothers' Institute; The Christian Brothers of Ireland, Inc.; the Diocese of Gallup (New Mexico); the Roman Catholic Bishop of Helena (Montana); the Roman Catholic Bishop of Stockton (California); the Roman Catholic Bishop of Great Falls-Billings (Montana); Roman Catholic Church of the Archdiocese of Santa Fe (New Mexico); the Diocese of Rochester (New York), the Diocese of Buffalo (New York); the Diocese of Rockville Centre (New York); the Roman Catholic Diocese of Ogdensburg, New York; and the Roman Catholic Archbishop of San Francisco (California). PSZJ also has represented committees comprised of, or including, survivors of childhood sexual abuse and adult survivors of sexual abuse and harassment, including those in the following chapter 11 cases: Boy Scouts of America; USA Gymnastics; Madison Boys & Girls Club, Inc.; and The Weinstein Companies. This experience makes PSZJ highly qualified to represent the Committee in this Case, and to maximize efficiency based on its experience with Roman Catholic entities such as the Debtor.

20. PSZJ maintains billing records that indicate the time spent and the nature of the work performed, and expenses PSZJ incurs as part of the Case. These billing records, which describe in detail the services rendered and expenses incurred by PSZJ during the Application Period, are summarized in monthly PSZJ invoices. PSZJ's invoices for the Application Period are attached at Exhibit A.

21. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code prescribes the general standards for determining the amount of compensation due to PSZJ in this Case:

[R]easonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered by such...attorney,...and by any paraprofessional persons employed...such attorney...based on the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, the time spent on such services, and the cost of comparable services other than in a case under this title...

22. PSZJ submits that the total value of its services from November 11, 2024 to December 31, 2024, set forth above, represents reasonable compensation for professional services rendered based upon the time spent, and the nature, extent and value of such services, taking into account the cost of comparable services other than in a case under the Bankruptcy Code. PSZJ further submits that given the skill required of PSZJ to perform services involved; PSZJ's customary fees for such work; and PSZJ's experience, reputation and ability; the compensation sought in this Application is fair and reasonable. PSZJ has spent 118.00 hours on this case from its retention through December 31, 2024, in the amount of $93,373.00 in fees and $3,271.63 in expenses.

NOTICE

23. Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, the Application will be served upon the following: (i) (by U.S. Mail) the Diocese, Attn: Lorei Dawson, 55 Joy Drive, South Burlington, Vermont 05403; (ii) (via email) counsel for the Diocese, Fredrikson & Byron, P.A., Attn: Steven R.
